

2016 - PEGASUS

Pegasus isn't your average spyware—it sneaks into phones like a digital ninja, grabbing texts, calls, and selfies without leaving a trace. This sneaky snoop is so slick, it makes secret agents jealous. If malware had a VIP club, Pegasus would be the guest of honor—quiet, deadly, and impossible to catch.